

Comparative / Global Studies

Half and Half – ANSWERS!!

In the UK, elite performers and those with great potential...	..can get 'World Class' funding
The organisation & administration of sport In the UK...	..is often criticised for being overly complex & wasteful.
In the USA young elite performers...	..progress from Little League, to High School then college and finally (perhaps) Pro sport.
The pro-Draft system...	..ensures some parity among top USA sports teams.
In the USA, sport is a commodity...	..inextricably linked with the media & sponsorship.
Poor performances in the 1956 and '60 Olympics...	..prompted the French Government to invest in sport.
In France, young elite performersmay have experienced sport through UNSS before INSEP
Politics, economics & a search for national identity...	..partly explain Australia's success in elite sport.
Failure in the 1976 Montreal Olympics...	..prompted the Australian govt to invest in elite sport.